A PESTIFEROUS DEMAGOGUE.

There was a pestiferous Radical demagogue in the last State Senate who made himself very conspicuous and disgusting to the Senators and the visitors by his incessant talk and by the persistent employment of the arts of the demagogue. His name was P. C. THOMAS, of the county of Davidson, and if ever a good county was shamefully misrepresented it was by this demagogue. He was not "shut up" during the entire session until the discussion upon the Railroad Commission. He made a speech against the establishment of a commission, using all the hackneyed and stereotyped arguments which are urged against the proposed law and attempting ridicule and make little of the arguments that had been made by those in favor of the measure. He was allowed plenty of rope, and as is customary, when small demagogues are allowed full liberty, he showed up his inconsistency so clearly that he will not be able again to deceive the people.

After Mr. Thomas had spoken as long as he desired, the fun began. SEN-ATOR LEGRAND procured a file of a Raleigh daily of about six or eight years ago, and began to read a speech published in it strongly advocating a Rail road Commission. After reading a short time he asked SENATOR THOMAS if he had ever heard of that speech before. The truth dawned on the Davidson demagogue that SENATOR LEGRAND was reading a speech he (THOMAS) had made when a member of the Senate some years ago. The Senate applauded, the galleries smiled audibly, and SENATOR THOMAS showed great confusion at being made to swallow his own words, and at being shown up to the world as a turncoat. SENATOR LE-GRAND had him on the rack, and he gave him as severe a drubbing by reading and applying his arguments as we have seen a man receive. He twisted and turned, tried to answer, but every word he utter ed only served to show all the more his duplicity and his unworthiness to represent a consistent and honest constituought never to be allowed to forget.

We allude to the above incident togood to-day .- Clinton Caucasian. day because we have seen a circular issued by Mr. Thomas in which he says that "at the request" of his "friends from all parts of the 7th Congressional district" he has decided to announce himself an "Independent, Republican, Alliance and Industrial Union candidate for Congress." He refers to the demands of the Alliance and says he "heartily endorses these resolutions and demands." He attacks Hon. JOHN S. HENDERSON and SENATOR VANCE, calling them politicians, and trying to stir up the prejudices of the people against them. All this is mean enough, but he goes on to praise Hon. A. LEAZER, (who was Mr. HENDERSON'S opponent for the legislature, and winds up with the assertion that the tricky politicians euchered Mr. LEAZAR out of the nomition-or words to that effect. We have not the circular by us, but the above is the gist of it. We say that the complimentary allusion to MR. LEAZAR is the meanest part of the circular because the idea sought to be conveyed is that MR. LEAZAR and COMMUNICATIONS RELATIVE TO his friends are disgruntled, and that Mr. Commonitions Relative to the Business Department of this paper snould be addressed to D. H. Browder. Lock Drawer No. 2, Raleigh, N. C., and all Drafts, Checks and Postal Money Orders should be made payable to his order. with Mr. LEAZAR about the circular and he is justly indignant at the unwarranted use of his name by

Mr. Thomas, and the specious argument made by MR. T omas based upon his defeat. The CHRONICLE knows- and the people of North Carolina know-that MR. LEAZAR is an honorable gentlemen and a Democaat "of the straightest sect," and no words of the Davidson county demagogue can add to their appreciation of his services. We are au CUR CARPET ROOM AN thorized by MR. LEAZAR to denounce the card and repudiate every attempt made in it openly or covertly to show that he or his friends have any feeling of disappointment or would even allow such statements to go uncorrected. MR LEAZAR left Raleigh before the adjourn ment of the State Convention to make a speech in a township in which every Democratic vote was cast for him for the Congressional nonination. He will speak frequently throughout the district and urge every Democrat to give their earnest support to Mr. HENDERSON whose ability and whose integrity entitle him not only to the support but to the confidence and esteem of all Democrats. He does'nt expect Republican support unless the Republican who votes for him is opposed to the Force bill, opposed to S. HENDERSON will be re-elected by an increased majority if all the Democrats

As for Mr. Thomas-well, it will take the Alliancemen (we mean those who have always been Democrats) just about five seconds to repudiate him, and to despise his pretended support of their principles. He is a nice man to appeal to the Alliance for support when he spoke against and voted against a railroad commission -the only measure that the Alliance asked the last Legislature in the district are as earnest in his support as Hon, Augustus Leazar.

A STATEMENT AND CORREC-TION.

The CHRONICLE assures the Fayetteville Observer that the telegram sent it some weeks ago was put in type, corrected in the proof, printed in the special Western edition of the paper, then taken out by mistake and not printed in the remainder of the papers. We regret this very much.

We regret the difference of opinion among the delegates as to whether the Judicial Convention of the Seventh district endorsed JUDGE MACRAE for the Supreme Court bench. The Fayetteville Observer says that the resolutions were adopted and that the recollection of the editor upon that point is entirely clear. Several gentlemen, delegates in the convention who supported JUDGE MAC-RAE, say that they were introduced but that the convention adjourned before a vote was taken, and we have been shown letters so stating. It is doubtless a case of honest difference of recollection of what did actually take place. Certainly the CHRONICLE's esteem and high regard for JUDGE MACRAE are too well known, and its reputation for fairness too well established, to permit anyone to think this paper would publish an incorrect statement and fail to make correction. This statement would have appeared several days ago, but our copy of the Fayetteville Observer was misplaced and we have not been able to get another. We desired to quote the exact words of the Fayetteville Observer, and regret that the paper has been destroyed.

The appropriation for the  $\Lambda$ . & M. College by Congress will be \$15,000 for the first year; \$17,500 for the second; \$20,000 for the third; \$22,500 for the fourth; and \$25,000 for the fifth and R. H. MARSH, D. D. every year thereafter.

ATTRACIVE PLACE.

We have opened up the Fall trade this year in carpets, with the largest stock that we have ever shown so early in the season.

Our stock of carpets and kindred stuffs would be creditable to any house in the country. In the next few weeks there will be some additions made, but even now it will well bear every word uttered by us in its praise. It is the most comfortable and convenient store room The Equal of Any Make in for the display of carpets in the State; and no matter whether one's purse is limited or not, they can invathe free coinage of silver, and opposed riably find the goods to to a reduction of taxation. Hon. John suit, both in style and While we do carry many very handsome stuffs in this department, there is the same thorough appreciation of the wants of those who do not care for the finest goods, and the stock can now boast of the best line of medium-priced ingrain carpets that the people of Raleigh have ever had to look at. It is immaterial to us the kind of carpet one needs, whether for Parlor, Sitting, Dining, Bed-room, Hall or Stairway, as our purchases are made with the view of having the right kind of carpet for each particular service. Without a visit to our carpet 100m, one would scarcely conceive of the completeness of this department, and it is a pleasure for us tend buying or not. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO., RALEIGH, N. C.
